

Primary RE Curriculum Overview

You may choose to deliver these in a different order. The matters of central importance are included for reference. To match the Primary RE Curriculum to your agreed syllabus match the matters of central importance to your own syllabus to see where the units match the requirements for your own agreed syllabus. Even though the questions may not match exactly, the matters of central importance will match those in your own agreed syllabus. The matters of central importance are emboldened in each unit. Thematic units cover different religions and non-religious worldviews and will be based on the matters of central importance chosen within those units.
